

Data mining on students careers

We have got some data on students' careers in the Engineering school. We would like to apply some machine learning technique to find useful information inside. E.g., which part of the pre-admission test is correlated with the career? How to find signals of potential difficulties, ...?

skills required: python, machine learning

Discussed (October 2017): Simone Magistri